Dear Cristi,

Thank you for inviting me to your birthday on February 5th. I will surely come. I'm so glad to be able to see you again after so long ... I have to tell you that I finally got the job, which I told you about, the last time we saw each other, database teacher at The University of Bucharest!

I wish to see you good again. By the way, I bought you a present that you won't forget, so stay tuned for a big surprise.

Unfortunately, I was unable to find a plane or train that would allow me to arrive on time. I will be 2 hours late.

P.S: Please keep a slice of cake for me too! Haha!

Thanks for the invitation once again.

Your friend,

Popescu Paullo Robertto Karloss
